

MC3

Community Discussion on Communication and Coordination of Interprofessional Teams

Barbara Flis

Parent Action for Health Kids

Discussion Guidelines

- Stories stay, Lessons leave. You may take the lesson, please leave personal stories here.
- Use of space. Try to balance stepping forward and making room for others. We want to hear from everyone.
- Respect for multiple perspectives. We invite all perspectives and at times we may challenge ideas, not individuals.

Objective: Listen, learn, understand, and connect. All voices are needed and encouraged.

“Unity is strength... when there is teamwork and collaboration, wonderful things can be achieved.” – Mattie Stepanek

In your group:

1. Introduce yourself (Name, Organization, and Role)
2. Identify a scribe to write the groups' comments on the handout
3. Identify someone who will report out key findings and insights from the discussion
4. Review and discuss the questions below

Objective: Listen, learn, understand, and connect. All voices are needed and encouraged.

Working with and helping youth with aggression:

- What is going well when working with aggression in youth in your setting/system?
- What are the barriers or challenges to helping youth with aggression in your setting/system?

Consider Cross-System Collaboration:

- What is going well when considering cross-system collaboration?
- What are some challenges with cross-system collaboration?

Findings and Insights:

- What did you learn in this conversation that was helpful or gave you a new understanding?
- Did you see a window of opportunity anywhere? Explain.
- What can I do to play a part in improving support for youth with aggression?

